BUSINESS AND MAKETING COOPERATION

GZDOC is trying to build a marketplace for all content providers, brands and production facilities by gathering the top-tier business resource from China's factual content industry. In GZDOC 2018, more than 40 platforms and production houses held events to promote the brands and contents during the festival. A publicity stunt at the GZDOC is proving to be cost-effective. Most important of all, it can make a splash within the industry and among audiences.
